

TELLER COUNTY SHOOTING SOCIETY

Vision: To be the premier firearms facility in the Teller County region, offering a full suite of full suite of shooting sport opportunities.

Mission: Promote safe shooting sports as well as the ideals of self-discipline, good sportsmanship while practicing environmental stewardship.

- Established in March of 2010, a 501(c)(7) organization, operator of the Gold Camp Shooting Sports Center (GCSSC),
- Governed by a eight-member Board of Directors, board meetings every three weeks and all-member meetings quarterly.
- GCSSC is located near Cripple Creek and Victor on Highway 81 just past the KOA Campground. The property encompasses 263 acres. The land, a series of old mining claims, was donated to TCSS by the Cripple Creek & Victor Gold Mine.
- GCSSC is open to members from sunrise to sunset, seven days/week. Venues include the following:
  - 25-yard pistol range with a covered shelter
  - 100-yard rifle range with a covered shelter
  - 400-yard rifle range with berms and metal targets at 200/300/400 yards (planned expansion in 2026 to 500-yards)
  - A member-only trap and skeet range scheduled to open Summer of 2026
- Events hosted at the GCSSC include pistol/rifle training classes; youth firearms safety training; hunter sight-in days; informal member shoots and various events coordinated by Colorado Parks & Wildlife.
- Memberships are available with annual dues of $175, prorated to $100 in August. The membership year extends from March 1 through the end of February.
- Public Days for non-members are hosted on weekends from May through October.
- For more information and/or to apply for membership see the TCSS website at: www.tcass-co.org.
